

Beaconhouse National University
Razia Hassan School of Architecture
Sample MCQs Test

1. One of the warmest winters on record has put consumers in the mood to spend money. Spending is likely to be the strongest in thirteen years. During February, sales of existing single-family homes hit an annual record rate of 4.75 million. This paragraph best supports the statement that

- A. Consumer spending will be higher thirteen years from now than it is today
- B. More people buy houses in February than in any other month.
- C. There were about 4 million homes for sale during February.
- D. Warm winter weather is likely to affect the rate of home sales.

2. Which of the following is not typically associated with interior design?

- A. Color theory and color psychology
- B. Selection of flooring materials and finishes
- C. Plumbing installation and maintenance
- D. Lighting design and fixture selection

3. Which of the following is true about the Modernist movement in architecture?

- A. It coincided with the rise of mass production in industrial manufacturing
- B. It shied away from ornamentation
- C. It was meant to give a sense of equality among the masses
- D. All of the above

4. Considering the energy crisis facing our country at this time, what approach do you think architects should adopt in reducing this crisis:

- A. Use energy-efficient environmental technology systems.
- B. Be sensitive to the climate and its conditions when designing buildings using age-old ideas in new ways to make comfortable living spaces while using minimum technology and energy.
- C. Be careful in the choice of building materials and methods of construction.
- D. All of the above

5. What would come next in the following series?

A. _____

6. In 2022 Pakistan experienced an unprecedented natural disaster that caused $15 Billion in damages and killed approx. 1700 people. What was the disaster?

- A. Heatwave
- B. Flooding
- C. Extreme Snow
- D. Earthquake